Force Be Met By Force

President in Call Again to Raise Ten Billion More in Taxes

By D. Harold Oliver
WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 —(P)— President Truman said today the only way to deal with the present world emergency is to meet force with force. He added that he dislikes this necessity very much.

The President told a news conference the United States will continue to seek agreements with Russia, but will continue to build up its armed strength to see that these agreements are enforced. He said the United Nations was organized to settle differences without the use of force. But, he added, Korea is just one example of how the Communists have made this impossible.

He said there is a stronger possibility of peace now than ever before—if the United States sticks to its knitting and goes ahead with its defense program.

The President also: 1—Said he has the word of Chairman William M. Boyle, Jr., of the Democratic National committee that he took no fees in connection with RFC loans and he believes him. He added that committee officials should to all they can to introduce prospective borrowers to government agencies as long as they receive no fees for it.

2—Predicted a Democratic victory in the 1952 elections. He said the Republicans have no issues and have resorted to misrepresentation and smears. He expressed agreement with Democratic prognosticator James A. Farley that no administration can be thrown out when the country is prosperous.

3—Wrote Vice-President Barkley renewing his plea for $10,000,000,000 in additional taxes and urging increases in the pending Senate bill on additional taxes and urging increases in the pending Senate bill on individual and corporation incomes. He said the Senate bill now being debated would produce only $5,200,000,000 a year in the face of a prospective deficit about twice that much. The Senate finance committee has estimated the bill would bring in $5,506,000,000 a year.

Still Seek Accord
The President's remarks about Russia came when a reporter recalled his Monday speech asserting agreements with Russia are not worth the paper they are written on and asked, in view of this, whether the U. S. would continue to seek agreements.

Yes, he replied, adding when the U. S. is in a position to enforce agreements they will be kept. That is the reason for the defense program, he continued. At another point, he said the Communists had requested resumption of Korean truce talks and this country is making every effort possible to end the fighting without killing any more people.

A reporter recalled testimony before a Senate investigating group that Boyle had introduced a prospective borrower to RFC officials, and asked if he thinks that is all right.

Believes Boyle
What is the chairman of a party committee for, he asked, adding this has been the practice for years and it is their job to be kind to people coming to town who want introductions. But he said there is a difference between that and taking fees and he believes Boyle when he says he took no fees.

In agreeing with Farley that an administration cannot be defeated when the country is making every effort possible to end the fighting without killing any more people, Farley called at the White House yesterday.

A reporter asked whether present prosperity is an authentic one when based on war production and deficit financing.

The President said prosperous

Sues to Get Back on Force

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 20—(P)—Former Broadway star Harry Fender wants to get back on the St. Louis police force and he has gone to court about it.

He filed suit in circuit court yesterday for reinstatement as detective sergeant, his rank when he left the force in 1945.

Fender explained later he doesn't want to give up his present work as a disc jockey to be a policeman again, but he wants reinstatement to straighten what he called the police department's pension fund "mess."

When he left the force in 1945 he didn't take out his money from the pension plan. The rules in force then were that he could rejoin the force anytime within four years by leaving the pension money intact.

He and 36 other officers applied for reinstatement in 1949. All were turned down by the board of police commissioners and the board passed a rule setting 38 as the maximum age for reappointment. Fender was 49 then. The board said the pension fund and the department had no relation to each other.

His suit named the board and the chief of police as defendants.

Possibly Get Beef For Army From Overseas

But Two U. S. Packers in Offers On Bids Sought

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20—(P)—The army said today it got offers of only 190,000 pounds of beef in response to its request for bids on 13,000,000 pounds.

Only two of 212 packers solicited for bids made offers. This seemed to make certain that the army now would turn to overseas markets to get the beef or carcass beef it needs for supplying the European command.

The army announced yesterday that if domestic packers failed to provide the needed amount it would request authority from Army Secretary Pace to buy overseas.

The packers have given government price controls and a shortage of high quality beef as reasons for refusing to submit bids. Requests for bids were put out by the Chicago quartermaster office and results were sent on to the Pentagon during the night. An army spokesman this morning told reporters:

"The army requested 212 packers to submit bids on 13,000,000 pounds of beef meat needed. Of the 212 packers solicited, 83 replied to the army's request."

"Of this number, only two made offers to supply beef. These two offered a total of 190,000 pounds. These were Kingman Co. of Indianapolis, which offered 100,000 pounds, and Dugdale Packing Co. of St. Joseph, Mo., which offered 90,000 pounds."

Resort to Outside Sources
Most of the large packers, a Chicago area marketing officer said, told him they could not bid on the "urgently needed" beef because they cannot buy enough cattle to slaughter without suffering losses.

The army in Washington said if the request for the beef is not met, the quartermaster general will seek authority from Army Secretary Pace to buy beef "off shore"—foreign countries.

If foreign meat is purchased, the army said, it will be used to meet requirements of American forces in Europe, relieving a drain on west coast supply sources. The west coast sources normally ship to the Far East and to military installations in the United States.

The statement said the army must have "immediate assurance that supplies will become available to the army not later than November 10. If such supplies are not available, menus at messes in the United States will have to be adjusted."

Swift and Co. and Armour and Co., two of the nation's largest packers, were among firms which advised army quartermaster market centers they could not bid on the beef order.

Swift said that present market prices for grain fed cattle needed to produce the army beef were six to eight per cent over ceiling levels imposed by the Office of Price Stabilization. The company said its plants could not buy at these prices and sell at wholesale

Flood Relief Funds For Bridge Repair

Contract Given Howard Company By County Court

Pettis county is receiving some flood control relief for repairing 13 bridges which were damaged by the high waters of July. A blanket contract to make repairs and furnish materials for the bridges was let to the Howard Construction Co., for $11,097.24, by the county court on September 13.

The monies awarded to Pettis county include $4,187.24 to be used in the 12-Mile Road District and the remainder, $6,910.00, to be used on county roads.

When the request for flood relief monies was made, a survey of county bridges was made and the State Highway department had approved several other bridges which will not come under this program due to the elimination by a federal inspector and changes in specifications as to the useage of the bridges by the government. The money approved by the state department and by Governor Forrest Smith amounted to $16,879.49, this amount being trimmed to the $11,097.24 after a visit by the federal inspector.

Some Disapproved
Many bridges in the La Monte area were disapproved by the federal inspector, but the bridges are in need of repair although the repairs being necessary due to damage resulting from the flood conditions.

However, rather than to lose out entirely on federal aid in repairing bridges, the county court bowed to the recommendations of the inspector but were disappointed not getting the entire amount approved by the state and government.

The contract calls for the contractor, Marvin Howard, representing the Howard Construction Co., to furnish all materials and labor to satisfactorily complete the projects, subject to the final inspection of the county engineer, or state or federal engineer. The contract was signed by the three members of the county court, J. V. Kesterson, presiding judge, Associate Judges E. L. Birdsong and Edw. Callis, and the Howard Construction Co., by Marvin Howard.

Kiwanis Hears Report as to Stadium Plan

Activity Progress From Request in The Lewis Estate

A comprehensive report on the background activity leading up to approval of the trustees of the Jennie Jaynes Lewis estate for building in her memory a stadium and recreational area at Liberty park to serve all Sedalians, was made in a talk by E. M. Stafford, Jr., one of the trustees speaking before the Sedalia Kiwanis club at its meeting in Bothwell hotel Thursday noon.

A complete story and review of this project as outlined by Mr. Stafford will appear in a special section of the Sunday September 23 issue of the Sedalia Democrat along with drawings of the proposed stadium, the Memorial gateway and other pictures.

The speaker called attention to the approaching Stadium Day Fund drive when citizens will be asked to raise $30,000 to augment the Lewis bequest in broadening the recreation facilities at the park.

Stress Importance
Also speaking about the importance of the Lewis gift to Sedalia and that of raising the $30,000 was T. W. Cloney II, another trustee. Charles Van Dyne is the third trustee.

On the same subject Stanley Walch, Smith-Cotton high school senior and football player, gave "The Students' Viewpoint" regarding the stadium and recreation facilities, expressing the conviction that all the high school students would lend their whole-hearted support towards the $30,000 fund drive.

Principal Joe Benson, chairman of the city drive committee, introduced the speakers. A. H. Wilks was program chairman.

President T. H. Yount announced there would be a board of directors meeting at 7:45 o'clock Friday night at the home of Arthur Morgan, 1309 South Prospect.

Notables For K and F Series

Popular Speakers And Entertainers Be on Programs

Six notables have been secured as speakers for the 1951-52 season of the Sedalia Knife and Fork club which will open on October 17. Members of the board of directors of the club, which was organized in 1947 and is one of 200 such clubs in the United States, have announced the following schedule:

October 17, Ed Harding, "Hardening of the Arteries," America's most popular platform humorist.

November 15, The Flying Reporter, Don Bolt.

January speaker to be named.

February 8, Michael MacDougall, the hard detective, "Gamblers Don't Gamble."

March 19, Judge Brantly Burcham, outstanding lawyer and historian, "Tomorrow's Citizens and America's Place in the Sun."

April 16, Dr. William H. Gordon, prominent Texas doctor, "Longer Lives From Modern Medical Practice."

May 16, Imre Kovacs, Yugoslav-American spellbinder, "Red Runs the Danube."

Social Dinner Group
The Knife and Fork club is not a classification, civic, sectarian or political club, but a social dinner group which meets for these purposes: (1) to entertain from time to time distinguished individuals, men and women of national prominence; (2) to keep the members informed on modern business and public problems by means of addresses by these national leaders; (3) to promote social contacts among business and professional leaders of the inland empire; (4) to provide means of recreation, fellowship and entertainment for its members.

The club brings to Sedalia many men and women whom Sedalians would otherwise have to content themselves with either reading or listening to over the radio. Through the organization local citizens may not only hear them, but meet them, dine with them and enjoy them in person.

A few of the guests who have previously appeared on the programs are: John Temple Graves II, Ed Harding, Archduke Otto of Austria, Willard Mayberry, Sydney Montague, Vernon Nash, Charles Eagle Plume, Dr. Franz Polgar, Harry C. France, Robert Kazmayer and Carlos Fallon.

At the same time Winston Churchill and his conservatives, sensing victory for the Tories in the air, began shaping their election strategy.

Conservatives considered a good sign for them the developing boom on the London stock market in the wake of Atlee's broadcast announcement yesterday that the general election would be held. Millions of pounds were added to the share values on the London exchange in a buying spree obviously touched off by the prospect that the Labor government may be ending six years of socialistic rule.

Atlee spoke to reporters before starting an automobile trip to North Berwick, Scotland, where he will address a Scottish Labor party conference Saturday.

King George VI Has Lung Ailment

LONDON, Sept. 20—(P)—King George VI, who is suffering from a lung ailment, was visited by his doctors again today.

The physicians stayed at Buckingham palace just under an hour. Last night they saw the king for nearly two hours. No medical bulletin was forthcoming on either occasion.

Outside the palace a large crowd saw the doctors enter and leave.

The king's doctors issued a bulletin Tuesday night which said that "structural changes" had developed in one of his lungs. There has been no elaboration.

Renew Hopes For an Order On Cease-Fire

Reds Suggest Peace Talks be Taken Up Again

By Don Huth

TOKYO, Sept. 20 —(P)—The Communist high command reversed itself today and suggested that Korean cease-fire talks be resumed immediately in Kaesong.

The Reds broke off the talks 28 days ago. They charged then that an Allied plane bombed and strafed the neutral Kaesong area Aug. 22 in an attempt to murder Communist truce delegates. The Allied command called the charge fraudulent and faked.

Heretofore the Reds have demanded that the Allies admit responsibility for a string of alleged neutral zone violations before the truce talks could be resumed.

They proposed today only that a "suitable organization" be set up to guarantee the neutrality of Kaesong, Korea.

Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway made no immediate comment.

But a release from the supreme commander's headquarters said: "There is reason to hope that the latest Communist reversal in policy and agreement to renew the peace talks may bring some sort of a cease-fire in Korea."

Caution Sounded
It cautioned, however, that "it is a hope that must be tempered by the realization that a renewal of the talks does not mean necessarily that previous difficulties will suddenly iron themselves out."

Chinese Gen. Peng Teh-Huai and North Korean Premier Kim Il Sung proposed:

1—That liaison officers of both sides meet to fix the time for reopening the meetings.

2—That at the first session after the conferences resume, delegates discuss a plan "to establish a suitable organization" for guaranteeing the neutrality of Kaesong and settling differences over previously charged violations.

The United Nations command has admitted the validity of only two alleged violations.

Ridgway's headquarters said an Allied plane strafed Kaesong by mistake Sept. 10 and four unarmed South Korean soldiers mistakenly approached the neutral zone Tuesday afternoon.

The Red leaders said they were willing to consider reopening the talks because of the "responsible attitude" the Allies have taken regarding the admitted violations.

A reporter asked if the President would submit further nominations.

No, he said, he did not intend to do so since he was satisfied with ones he made.

Once Congress recesses, Mr. Truman can give his nominees recess appointments. That will permit them to serve until the Senate acts on the appointments at its next session.

Douglas' choices for the two judgeships are Joseph J. King, Jr., and Benjamin P. Epstein, both of whom won out in bar association polls suggested by the Senator.

Begin Shaping Strategy For Election Oct. 25 in Britain

LONDON, Sept. 20—(P)—Prime Minister Atlee opened the British Labor party's campaign for the October 25 general election today by telling the nation it must choose whether it will "go backward with the conservatives or go forward with labor."

At the same time Winston Churchill and his conservatives, sensing victory for the Tories in the air, began shaping their election strategy.

Conservatives considered a good sign for them the developing boom on the London stock market in the wake of Atlee's broadcast announcement yesterday that the general election would be held. Batter MIG Jets In Korea

Three Damaged By UN Planes After One Had Been Destroyed

By John Randolph

U. S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Sept. 20 —(P)— American warplanes today damaged three Russian-made MIG-15 jets in a series of dogfights over northwest Korea. Altogether, 49 Allied and 78 Red planes were engaged.

The U. S. Fifth Air Force said there was no Allied losses.

Red losses for two days of dogfights totaled one MIG destroyed and eight damaged.

For the first time in history, giant helicopters ferried battle-ready troops into action. The helicopters delivered a reinforced company of Marines and their equipment to a rugged mountain summit in only four hours. By foot the same job would have taken two days.

Other United Nations troops faced withering Red mortar fire as they pushed off again in the bloody "battle of the hills" on the east-central front.

Clearing weather gave them badly needed air support.

Communist troops on command-line high ground rained artillery and mortar fire at the attacking Allied infantrymen.

Elsewhere on the east central front, Eighth Army soldiers continued local attacks against Reds dug-in on high ground.

U. N. advances also were reported on the western front. They were north of Yonchon and northwest of Chorwon.

The Fifth Air Force reported four swirling jet battles between Allied and Communist aircraft.

Battle Near Tree-Tops
In the biggest, 32 F-86 Sabre jets took on 30 MIGs and damaged two of them. The battle ranged down to tree-top level from a start at 43,000 feet. Capt. Richard H. Johns of Napa, Calif., and Lt. John W. Hower of Arlington, Va., were credited with the two enemy planes damaged.

The Sabre jets were flying over Fifth Air Force fighter-bombers attacking Red rail lines.

A third MIG was damaged when two F-80 Shooting Stars jumped eight MIGs east of Sunan, Lt. R. A. Dubul of Miami, Fla., said his tracers hit one MIG beneath the wing and canopy in the six-minute battle.

The Fifth Air Force also reported a brief engagement between 15 Allied and 20 Red jets near Sukchon. It said no damage was inflicted to either side before the MIGs swooshed to their Manchurian base.

On the ground, U. N. infantrymen pulled themselves together for a drive to regain Wednesday's losses. The final score for Wednesday—no hills won, three lost, and seven Allied attacks turned back—was relieved only by the successful defense of three other peaks against strong Communist attacks.

With clearing weather, however, the doughboys had help from air force and mine fighter pilots. Powerful artillery fire that is more accurate when directed from spotter planes.

The "battle of the hills" flared from northwest of Yanguu almost to the Sea of Japan, west of Kansong.

The Allies were fighting for a series of east-west positions that, if taken, would bring them close to more open country.

Once there, the U. N. army would be in the best position to launch a wheeling movement to the northwest. That could gradually swing the front from an east-west line to one running north-east-southwest.

Ground action in that area was savage.

North Korean troops stormed ahead in the rain to recapture three peaks. They forced back the Allies at several other points. On three peaks the Allies stood fast.

One of the positions lost was a commanding height on "Heartbreak Ridge," north of Yanguu. The Allies took it late Tuesday night after a bitter three-hour hand-to-hand fight. The Reds counterattacked almost immediately and the doughboys were forced to withdraw. Their attempts to regain the height were repulsed.

Graziano Rocks Tony Janiro for TKO, But Decision Is Disputed

DETROIT, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Rocky Graziano, whose blasting comeback in the last 20 seconds stunned Tony Janiro last night and gained Rocky a technical knockout, wants to get into the next business—a middleweight title fight with champion Sugar Ray Robinson.

This may be early next year. Meanwhile "we wuz robbed" cry came from Janiro and Frankie Jacobs, his manager.

Until Rocky's crashing lefts and rights suddenly sprawled Tony on the canvas with the fight nearly over, Janiro appeared a sure winner in a wide-open slugfest. Referee Lou Handier halted the 10-round, televised fight just as Janiro hit the floor.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Did you know that the plans for a boycott against Penn. if the Quakers had persisted in its television program, had gone so far that Dartmouth had tentatively arranged to journey to Tulsa instead of Philadelphia . . . Probably would have been a case of trading one beating for another.

Before we relay another "exclusive" we want to inspect the correspondent's check to see if a tongue is in it . . . He claims the Kentucky legislature is going to ask for ban on awarding athletic scholarships to Pennsylvanians . . . Story is that Bear Bryant is pouring so many Pennsylvania high school stars into the bluegrass the legislators are afraid the state will go Republican . . . After escorting a three-man American track team to an international meet in Scotland, Oklahoma track coach John Jacobs gasped: "Me take care of them? They took care of me. Those boys—Bob Richards, Andy Stanfield and Roscoe Brown—had been everywhere. I was the greenhorn."

Soft Life, Eh?
To most spectators, the place-kicking specialist who runs onto the football field when time is out, boots the ball once and retires to the bench, seems to have the softest possible job . . . Amos Townsend, who does that job claims it ain't so . . . Amos tried to act like a halfback and catch a punt during a recent warmup. He ran into Dick Dewing, a substantial fullback, and busted his nose . . . When they took Townsend to the infirmary for x-rays of the injuries, a nurse dropped an x-ray lens, catching Amos square on the mouth and knocking out a tooth.

One-Minute Sports Page
The sports conference is planning to set up a statistical bureau. Wonder if that will include correct figures on footballers' salaries? . . . Vic Marsillo, the fight manager who turned disc jockey, has been promoted from Charlie Fusari's pub in Newark to Jack Dempsey's on Broadway . . . Ben Hogan doesn't expect to return to tournament golf until the Masters next spring. Too many exhibition dates, which are more profitable . . . Last time Harvard opened the football season against Springfield, in 1928, Arnold Horween was coach and Capt. Art French scored three touchdowns. In next Saturday's opener against Springfield, Arnold Horween, Jr., will be at tackle and Art French, Jr., will be a back.

Cleaning the Cuff
Lee Savold has been recalled from the midwest to help Fitzie Pruden train for his coming bout with Don Williams, which manager Tex Sullivan claims is the beginning of a welterweight elimination series . . . After reading Morris Bealle's newest football book, "Gangway for Navy Vice-Admiral Emory Land commented: "Its list of players who have become flag officers is a revelation to Navy people and civilians alike." . . . When halfback Don McAuliffe, the comedian of the Michigan State football squad, saw huge glasses of tomato juice on the breakfast table, he cracked: "There must be a real rough scrimmage coming up today. Coach is trying to get us used to the sight of blood."

Windsor Lions Will Sponsor A Horse Show

Get an Early Start On March of Dimes For Henry County

The Windsor Lions are sponsoring a Horse Show Sunday afternoon September 23, proceeds to be placed in the Henry County March of Dimes Fund for the coming campaign. The Lions recently decided to sponsor the show in an endeavor of getting an early start on the annual March of Dimes campaign.

Many Fine Horses Entered
Already many owners of fine horses have notified the committee in charge, they will have their animals in the show. There are no prize monies offered to the winners, the winners to receive nothing more than trophies and ribbons which are being donated by the business men of Windsor. No admission charge is to be made, however containers will be placed at the entrance of the Windsor Fair grounds, located in Pettis county, in which donations can be made. Should this method prove successful, the Lions club will make this an annual affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schell, Libby, Mo., and Chester Brashers of Springfield, are going to Windsor and are donating their services as judges of the show.

Expect a Large Attendance
It is anticipated by the sponsors that several thousand horse-show fans in this area will attend the gala affair.

Shower Given For Minister And His Wife

On Thursday night the past week, the members of the Assembly of God church in Versailles presented their pastor, the Rev. Nelson Sachs, and Mrs. Sachs with a miscellaneous shower for their new home.

It was the regular mid-week Bible study at the church, and at the conclusion of the service the pastor, Mrs. Charles Bennett, played "Showers of Blessings" as two of the deacons carried a huge box filled with gifts up the aisle and presented them to the pastor and his wife.

The box was decorated with white paper and tied with lavender and yellow satin ribbon. On the top of the box was a lid made out of white cardboard on which a large umbrella was drawn. It was colored in lavender and yellow. Under the umbrella was written, "This is not a shower for a bride, neither is it a pink and blue, but we got these gifts together because we think so much of you."

Rev. Sachs and his wife received many useful and beautiful gifts. Besides the gifts of the members of the church, there were several gifts sent by friends of the Rev. and Mrs. Sachs.

After the unwrapping of the gifts a lunch was served in the basement of the church. As a centerpiece for the table there were miniature umbrellas in pastel shades surrounded by garden flowers and candles on each side. The occasion came as a complete surprise to Rev. and Mrs. Sachs.

Celebrated Artist to be in Concert Series

Gladys Swarthout To Appear at Warrensburg

Gladys Swarthout, glamorous mezzo-soprano, and a Missouri born girl, will be one of the artists on the Community Concert Series to be held at Hendricks hall, Warrensburg, this season.

The concert in which Miss Swarthout will appear will be available only to members of the Community Concert Series and tickets must be purchased this week for the entire series. They may be obtained from Ralph Carrel, Miss Geraldine Teufel and Mrs. E. E. Colbert until 5 o'clock Saturday.

Gladys Swarthout

There will be three concerts and perhaps four, all with outstanding artists.

Miss Swarthout was born on Christmas Day in Deepwater, Mo., and a few years later moved to Kansas City with her parents.

When her playmates asked her where she was from she would say "Deepwater" and they would invariably squeal, "Deepwater!"

Why didn't you get drowned?" As a result she has been mortally afraid to venture into a lake or ocean ever since and never learned to swim.

Gladys embarked on her singing career almost by accident because at seven she took a dislike to the mannerisms of the church soloists and at 13 put up her hair, declared she was 19, and got the job as church soloist.

Friends arranged an audition for her in Chicago some years later, and not wanting to let them down, she sang her audition, and discovered she had sung her way into a contract at the Chicago opera. Unfortunately, she knew no operatic roles, but the summer before her debut she learned 23 roles and proved herself such a valuable artist that she appeared in 50 per cent of the performances the first season.

Recognized the pre-eminent Carmen of our times, Miss Swarthout did not assume the role until she was well-equipped vocally and historically. Her first association with the opera was in the role of Mercedes in Chicago with Mary Garden occupying the spotlight. One night after a performance Miss Garden called Gladys to her, and taking the immense shawl from her shoulders cut it in half and gave half to the youthful mezzo with the prediction: "You will be our next great Carmen." Miss Swarthout regards the half shawl as one of her greatest possessions.

Starred in Pictures

In addition to her operatic career, Miss Swarthout has been equally famous as a concert, radio and recording artist, and has starred in five Paramount pictures, including their Jubilee picture, "Champagne Waltz." During the past season she made her television debut in her most famous role, "Carmen." She has also written a novel, "Come Soon Tomorrow," which is now in its fourth large printing.

Miss Swarthout is annually voted one of the 10 best dressed women in America and one of the 15 best dressed in the world. She has one pet superstition in regard to clothes however—she has worn the same dress for her appearance in every town in which she has sung for the past 10 years.

For the past 16 years Miss Swarthout has been married to Frank Chapman and unlike many professional women who cling tenaciously to their maiden names, she almost never appears in public without her favorite necklace, a gold chain whose links letter-out the name Chapman.

An Automobile is a Telephone Office

For a time the Boonville fire on September 13, this automobile with a radio telephone was the "switchboard" with the only talking link in town. From left above, Layton R. Miller, Boonville police chief; Chas. E. Sevier, telephone representative who offered his radio telephone for service; in car using mobile telephone, E. J. Melton of the Boonville Record and Missourian and Fire Chief Bechtold of Boonville. Car is in front of burned-out wreck of buildings.

When Boonville's fire last week was at its height, T. M. Mullaly, manager of the telephone company in Sedalia, called a telephone representative who was near New Franklin in a car equipped with a radio telephone. Mullaly called Charles E. Sevier, the telephone representative and asked him to drive the telephone car across the river to Boonville and offer the car's radio telephone to the police, fire chief, Chamber of Commerce and other Boonville officials for any use they might have of it.

Three telephone cables with 700 pairs of wires had been burned out. This lighted up almost 1000 lamps on the Boonville switchboard at the telephone office, which in turn burned out the main fuse and the entire telephone system went dead for a short time. It was during this period that the radio telephone in the car was Boonville's "telephone office" with only one speaking unit for local or long distance service.

Using the automobile telephone, Bill Kirton of the Boonville Daily News called the first story to the without her favorite necklace, a gold chain whose links letter-out the name Chapman.

Officers of S-C Junior Council

The Smith-Cotton High School Junior council met Wednesday afternoon at the high school.

Plans were made for the forthcoming "Stadium Day" on September 27.

The Junior council is now selling high school pennants, which were donated by the Senior council.

Forfeits $100 Bond In Police Court

J. O. McQuary, Bethany, Mo., picked up by State Trooper Pete Stohr at Broadway and Quincy, Wednesday evening, failed to appear in police court this morning and his $100 bond was ordered forfeited. McQuary was charged with driving a car while intoxicated.

Trooper Stohr had followed the car from 16th and Limit to Broadway and Quincy, before stopping McQuary.

The $10 bond of Ralph Glenn, 324 North Engineer, was also ordered forfeited by Judge Jerry Trotter when the defendant failed to appear on a charge of speeding.

The problem in the latter case is that Glenn left his motorcycle as security for the bond. The court is wondering if Glenn is giving up the idea of cycle riding or will call at police headquarters and produce $100.00 cash to reclaim the two wheel machine.

Ten overtime parking bonds of $1.00 were ordered forfeited when the defendants failed to appear in court.

vice Commission are now open for the positions of wage adjustment examiner, $3,825 to $5,400 a year and wage stabilization investigator, 3,100 and $3,825 a year. "Where Customers Send Their Friends"

• The Washington Merry-Go-Round Pennsylvania Congressman Puts Words in Ike's Mouth

By Drew Pearson
(Copyright, 1951, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 —GOP Congressman Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania deserves a medal for high jumping at conclusions. With considerable flourishes and a great air of being in the know, Scott announced that General Eisenhower would accept the Republican nomination.

However, here is an almost verbatim account of Congressman Scott's talk with General Ike in Paris, on which the Pennsylvania congressman based his earth shaking prediction.

Scott asked Eisenhower if there was any "hope" of Ike's accepting a GOP draft nomination for the White House.

Scott added: "I know you're a good Republican, general — isn't that a fact?"

Before Eisenhower could reply, an aide, Brig. Gen. Charles T. Lamm, who was present at the meeting, broke in jokingly:

"I've never heard the general say anything to indicate that he isn't a good Republican."

This struck Eisenhower as so funny that he roared back and let go with a belly laugh that almost shook the window panes.

Ike made no further comment, but Congressman Scott took this guffaw to mean that Ike not only was a good Republican — which nobody denies — but would consent to lead the party in the 1952 election. He even announced that western Europe would be in such good shape by next year that Eisenhower could turn over the reins to a deputy, leaving him free to return and accept the GOP nomination.

Note — Much more accurate word that Eisenhower will be a GOP candidate comes from his brother Milton, president of Penn State college.

Labor Flirts With Taft

Most important backstage move in the works by a small group at the A. F. of L. convention in San Francisco is to dump Truman and patch up labor relations with the chief author of the Taft-Hartley act, Sen. Robert Alphonso Taft.

This move is certain to be denied but here is the master mind behind this strategy.

A group of Republicans inside the A. F. of L. high command went to San Francisco with the idea of going back to the old Sam Gompers policy of keeping labor aloof from either political party. Headed by canny Bill Hutcheson, head of the Carpenters' union, long a GOP stalwart, the group includes George Meany, influential secretary of the A. F. of L. and Dave Beck, No. 2 man in the Teamsters' union and one of the most powerful men in the northwest.

The question of sticking with the Democrats has come up at almost every A. F. of L. meeting recently. And a majority in the past has won out on the plea that labor would get a black eye if it turned on the political party which pulled it out of the depression years during FDR's day and battled the Taft-Hartley act during Truman's day.

But now the following deal with Taft is being discussed by one or two in the A. F. of L. high command.

In return for dumping Harry Truman, Taft would agree to amend the Taft-Hartley act. In fact, he has already introduced a bill in the Senate to help out the building trades which has all the earmarks of a deal with GOP Bill Hutcheson of the Carpenters. The Taft concession violates all of Taft's previous moral principles and repeats not only part of the Taft-Hartley act but the Wagner act. For it not only would abolish elections in building trades unions but would protect the union from any unfair labor practices charge by another union.

In brief, this would permit an employer to back an election with a phony union which in no way represented his men.

The strategy now discussed by GOP friends in the A. F. of L. high command is to trade further modifications of the Taft-Hartley act for dumping labor allegiance to Truman.

THE STORY: John Clayton, ex-Confederate colonel, goes West after the Civil War. At Fort Kearney he witnesses the fierceness of the Army in marching troops onto the scene where negotiations for a treaty with Indians are in progress.

BY the middle of July, Carrington had garrisoned Fort Reno, just south of the Powder. Then, with attention to orders but little to sanity, he began building his new post, Fort Phil Kearney, 70 miles further north.

I had long since parted company with Ed Geary, he going on up the Bozeman Trail with our train. I staying on as a civil scout and meat hunter for Carrington's command at Fort Kearney.

I was lounging in quarters, having been in the field the entire night previous, scouting a rumor of a giant war camp on the Tongue, when word came the captain wanted to see me.

I was immediately apprehensive. Fetterman was the one who had told Geary, "With 50 good men I could ride through the whole Sioux Nation." Earlier in the same day, one of the young officers had shown me a notebook kept by a private of his company, in which the latter had filed a list of game taken in the vicinity of the fort. Numbered carefully among the elk, bear, antelope, and buffalo, were "five common Indians."

It was with these thoughts I reported to Captain Fetterman, quickly learning my fears had been conservative.

"Clayton, we've got a wood train stuck over on the Tongue. Ammen and surrounded. Care to scout the action for me?"

You're a gay blade, I thought to myself. Not every man would be so delighted at the prospect of having his brains pured by a tomahawk. Aloud, I said, "I'll go. How many men are we taking?"

This was not presumptuous of me. I was a civilian scout. It was

Nebraska Town Learns Former Peace Officer A Brother Of Capone

HOMER, Neb., Sept. 20.—(P)—The justice of peace in this northeast Nebraska village was disclosed today to be a long lost brother of the late gangster Al (Scarface) Capone.

He is Richard J. "Two Gun" Hart, a former law enforcement officer of no small reputation hereabouts—a government agent back in the prohibition days and former town marshal.

His identity as James Capone, about 64, was disclosed today in Chicago where a grand jury is investigating the alleged $96,679 income tax evasion of Al's other brother, Ralph "Bottles" Capone.

Assistant U. S. Attorney Lawrence J. Miller said Hart has been subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury.

Miller said Hart left his Brooklyn, N. Y., home to join a circus when he was 16 years old and remained silent for 33 years, never contacting his family.

In 1937 he wrote his brothers asking their help. He wrote that he was almost blind, dead broke and had five children to support.

Hart then was put on the family payroll, Miller said.

Grand Jury Indicts Cook In The Murder Of Seattle Salesman

EL CENTRO, Calif., Sept. 20.—(P)—The Imperial county grand jury Wednesday indicted Wm. Edward Cook, Jr., 23, convicted slayer of a family of five, for the murder of Robert Dewey, Seattle salesman, in Imperial Valley last Jan. 6.

District Attorney Don Bitler said that Cook, now serving 300 year sentence at Alcatraz, will be brought here this fall to face trial. The prosecution will seek the death sentence, Bitler said.

Cook terrorized the western states for almost two weeks before his capture in lower California. He was convicted in Oklahoma for killing the Carl Mosser family and is currently serving five consecutive 60 year sentences.

Truck Sideswipes Coach Dow's Auto

A 1951 car, owned by Ralph "Stub" Dow, Jr., was sideswiped at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday while parked in front of Dow's residence, 407 West Broadway. It was hit by a 1946 truck, driven by Vernon Wilcox, Beaman route 1.

Wilcox was traveling east on Broadway at an estimated 20-miles-per-hour when he hit Dow's car, which was parked next to the curbing on the street's south side.

Wilcox agreed to pay all damages to Dow's automobile. Jesse Goodie and Herman Hoehns of the Sedalia Police Department made the investigation.

Harry Gross to Stay in Jail

Defiant 'Bookie' Given Five Years For Contempt

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Gambler Harry Gross, whose brazen refusal to testify shattered the state's bribery case against 18 politicians, today lost his parole and must remain in jail.

A three-judge special sessions court revoked the parole, which had been granted six months ago, while Gross awaited sentencing on gambling charges.

District Attorney Miles F. McDonald, whom the dapper gambler had double-crossed in backing down on his original agreement to talk at the trial, asked that the parole be thrown out.

"I am no longer able to guarantee to produce this witness when he is wanted," McDonald said.

Justice William B. Northrop, presiding at the hearing, set Sept. 27 for sentencing Gross on 66 counts of gambling, for which he could draw up to 68 years in prison. He previously pleaded guilty and sentencing had been set for October 8.

Contempt Sentence
On top of this, the ex-boss of a $20-million-a-year bookmaking syndicate was given five years for contempt of court during yesterday's stormy courtroom wrangling.

Gross had truculently defied attempts of the court to get him to answer questions in the trial in which the policemen were accused of taking a million a year in bribes.

His defiance forced Judge Samuel S. Leibowitz to throw out the case which McDonald's staff had worked two years preparing and free the defendants.

At the hearing today, McDonald said he would have asked immediate sentencing of Gross on the gambling counts, but he wanted the justices to have time to become "fully aware of the magnitude of his offense" by studying minutes of grand jury hearings.

The gambler's attorney, Michael Kern, said he doubted the legality of putting the minutes before the court, but that he would not oppose the delay.

The graft-probing Brooklyn grand jury faced an almost hopeless salvage task, after its prime case was ruined.

Nevertheless, McDonald said he was going to try to "pick up the pieces."

Other big packers which did not submit bids included the George A. Hormel Company, Austin, Minn., and the John Morrell and Co., Ottumwa, Iowa.

Agriculture department meat experts, however, predicted today beef supplies would increase within a few weeks and the army should have less difficulty obtaining meat.

For the country as a whole, slaughter of cattle and calves under federal inspection—the source of military supplies—has been about 16 per cent below a year ago during the last two weeks.

However, the decline during the past two weeks has been 28 per cent in midwestern slaughter areas where the large packing plants operate and where the army normally gets the bulk of its supplies.

Officials said there were considerably more cattle on farms than a year ago, but that fewer are coming to market now for two major reasons:

(1) Pastures have been unusually favorable this year in midwestern and some range areas and stock men have been taking advantage of them to add more weight to their cattle.

(2) Farmers are increasing cattle herds and in order to do they must hold larger numbers for breeding purposes. In periods of expanding herds, the number of cattle sold for slaughter drops below the level of actual production.

The forecast of larger beef supplies within a few weeks is based upon the fact that summer pastures soon will be gone and farmers will send increased numbers of cattle to markets rather than keep them on more expensive grain and forage feeds.

Doctor Tough On Robbers

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Dr. Clyde E. Kane is a tough man on robbers.

The 56-year-old physician last night chased and captured an ex-convict who attempted to hold him up at this office. It was the third time he has falled attempts to rob him there.

This time the doctor was accosted by two men as he was leaving his office. One man, whom he treated earlier, pointed what turned out to be a toy pistol at him and began beating him over the head. The would-be robber fled but Dr. Kane gave chase. A passing police officer joined him in the pursuit and they overtook the man. The second would-be robber got away.

Police said the man identified himself as Edward M. Savage, 38-year-old machine operator on the way from Minneapolis, Minn., to Texas, Police said Savage admitted serving prison terms in Texas and Ohio.

MOSES LAKE, Wash., Sept. 20.—(AP)—A dust storm blown by 60-mile an hour winds piled 15 automobiles into a ditch alongside the highway 14 miles east of here last night.

Two persons were reported brought to the Samaritan hospital here, suffering from traffic injuries which were not serious.

Sampson Hanover and Frank Ervin Turn in New World Pace Record

Sampson Hanover turned in the fastest mile ever recorded over a half-mile track Wednesday while being driven by Frank Ervin, Sedalia, trainer of the famed horse. Time of the mile on the Delaware, Ohio, county fair grounds track, was 1:59 3/5 in the second heat of the $2,500 Almahurst pace. Sampson Hanover is the undefeated 4-year-old son of Volomite another famous harness racing horse.

During the Missouri State Fair Sampson Hanover won the 26-pace on Tuesday, taking the two straight heats in 2:11.6 and 2:13.4. The pace was scheduled on Friday for the big race but rain cancelled the program.

Possibly Get Beef For Army From Overseas

price ceilings without suffering "prohibitive losses."

Armour said that its supply of choice beef cattle was small and that production of four-way boneless beef wanted by the army would be larger than on standard beef operations. (The four-way boneless beef is processed into steaks, roasts, stewing meat and hamburger.)

Other big packers which did not submit bids included the George A. Hormel Company, Austin, Minn., and the John Morrell and Co., Ottumwa, Iowa.

Pvt. Ray Linhardt, Ft. Hood, Tex., arrived Sunday for a 14-day furlough with his mother, Mrs. Marie Linhardt, 646 East 15th, Sunday dinner guests at the Linhardt home were: Pvt. Linhardt's brothers, Edwin of Syracuse, Arthur of Buncheon, Ralph of Sedalia and Alvin of Tipton, and his sister, Mrs. Mildred Albertin of California, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sisemore and Mrs. J. J. Paxton went to St. Louis Sunday to see their son and brother, Robert Dale, who was operated on for appendicitis.

Agriculture department meat experts, however, predicted today beef supplies would increase within a few weeks and the army should have less difficulty obtaining meat.

For the country as a whole, slaughter of cattle and calves under federal inspection—the source of military supplies—has been about 16 per cent below a year ago during the last two weeks.

However, the decline during the past two weeks has been 28 per cent in midwestern slaughter areas where the large packing plants operate and where the army normally gets the bulk of its supplies.

Officials said there were considerably more cattle on farms than a year ago, but that fewer are coming to market now for two major reasons:

(1) Pastures have been unusually favorable this year in midwestern and some range areas and stock men have been taking advantage of them to add more weight to their cattle.

(2) Farmers are increasing cattle herds and in order to do they must hold larger numbers for breeding purposes. In periods of expanding herds, the number of cattle sold for slaughter drops below the level of actual production.

The forecast of larger beef supplies within a few weeks is based upon the fact that summer pastures soon will be gone and farmers will send increased numbers of cattle to markets rather than keep them on more expensive grain and forage feeds.

Doctor Tough On Robbers
ST. LOUIS, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Dr. Clyde E. Kane is a tough man on robbers.

The 56-year-old physician last night chased and captured an ex-convict who attempted to hold him up at this office. It was the third time he has falled attempts to rob him there.

This time the doctor was accosted by two men as he was leaving his office. One man, whom he treated earlier, pointed what turned out to be a toy pistol at him and began beating him over the head. The would-be robber fled but Dr. Kane gave chase. A passing police officer joined him in the pursuit and they overtook the man. The second would-be robber got away.

Police said the man identified himself as Edward M. Savage, 38-year-old machine operator on the way from Minneapolis, Minn., to Texas, Police said Savage admitted serving prison terms in Texas and Ohio.

Beef Situation Gets Tighter

By the Associated Press
The beef situation is tightening up. Many signs indicate it will probably get worse before it gets better.

The latest difficulties of the packers stem from sharply increased costs of beef on the hoof—increases which they say have more than offset the penny-a-pound boost the packers were allowed this week by the office of price stabilization.

Wholesale beef prices are advancing. Supplies in the big packing houses are running low. Ranchers are holding back their cattle. More meat is reported finding its way into the black market.

This situation is expected to add up to higher prices, increasingly tight supplies and inferior quality for the retail consumer within another week. Trade sources predict that with beef expensive and scarce, veal, pork, lamb and other meats will also be affected.

Still in the high-cost category are fresh eggs of the large grade "A" variety. Price increases of from two to three cents a dozen have been reported in several larger cities this week, and no price drop is in immediate prospect.

The Dun and Bradstreet index of wholesale food costs fell to a new low for the year this week and to its lowest level since last November. Representing the total cost of one pound each of 31 foods in general use, the index stood at $6.67, down two cents from a week ago.

Wednesday, September 18, county commanders of the ten districts of the Missouri Cancer Society, their co-workers and staff members of the Ellis Fishel hospital met in an all day workshop session at the Governor hotel in Jefferson City.

Mrs. Fred A. Thompson, state commander, presided.

Reports were given by the commanders on the work in their respective counties.

Mrs. George Fichter, commander of Pettis county, and Mrs. David Elliott, chairman of the Cancer Dressing Unit of Pettis county attended the meeting in Jefferson City.

The cancer dressing program will be ready to start work soon. Soft, absorbent, white materials and white shirts, especially are still needed. Collection boxes are at the post office, the court house, the Missouri Public Service building and the Water company.

Any organization or individual wishing to participate in the cancer dressing program may contact Mrs. David Elliott at 3622 or 178.

Lewis is Bound Over by Court

Is Charged With An Assault on Attorney Harned

George William Lewis, of near La Monte, charged with intent to do great bodily harm, was bound over to the action of the October term of criminal court, by Magistrate W. W. Blain, in the middle of preliminary hearing. The hearing was held in the assembly room of the courthouse this morning.

Lewis is accused of assaulting Leo J. Harned, attorney, when he went to the Lewis farm to discuss an estate earlier this month. According to the petition the incident took place on August 13.

Harned represents the Alva Lewis estate, a relative of George Lewis. Lewis was accused of firing a shotgun at Harned, 12 pellets striking the car Harned was in, one the window vent, then glancing off and hitting the attorney.

In court this morning the witnesses for the prosecution had testified, and Mr. Lewis was called to the stand. At one point when his attorneys, Sam Harlan and Earl T. Crawford, sought to insert into the case a conversation which took place a year ago, Judge Blain overruled the testimony stating, "I think it will be good evidence when the case gets to circuit court."

Endeavored to Explain

Both Harlan and Crawford sought to explain the connection of the conversation which would lead up to the day Harned visited the Lewis home and the shotgun incident. The judge insisted it had nothing to do with the preliminary hearing, and Prosecuting Attorney Michael Bogutsky likewise tried to explain to the court it was permissible.

Attorney Crawford then addressed the court, telling him that he wanted shown in the record the court would not permit his client to present his evidence.

A state of confusion existed for several minutes during the discussion between Prosecutor Bogutsky, Harned, Crawford and the court, during which Mr. Harned remarked, "I want to say Mr. Bogutsky has been very fair about this, in agreeing to let Mr. Lewis testify to the conversation."

Judge Blain rapped with his gavel very forcibly and emphatically told the attorneys he didn't want any conversations carried on between them. Starting to question Mr. Lewis again about the conversation, Judge Blain interrupted. Mr. Harlan then told his client to leave the stand "if the court has already decided to bind him over, I don't see any reason to carry this hearing on."

Judge Blain then ordered Lewis bound over to the action of the October term of criminal court and set his bond at $1,000.

Primitive Tribe Discovered
DARWIN—(P)—A completely walled-in village inhabited by primitive tribesmen, who had never seen a white man before, has been discovered by a Dutch patrol deep in the Dutch New Guinea jungle. The story of the discovery was told by the Chief Justice of Dutch

New Guinea, Dr. Bernard Damen, who visited Darwin recently. Dr. Damen said the village had been built into a fortress against hostile tribesmen, and the patrolmen had to crawl singly through a small hole in the wall. The astonished tribesmen advanced on them in a threatening manner with spears and bows and arrows. Patrol leader Den Haam calmed the villages by singing them some native peace songs, and then gradually won their confidence by giving them presents.

CMC Action Starts Friday; Bengals Clash With Kemper

Two clashes in the Central Missouri Conference will get the circuit's 1951 championship race underway Friday night. Smith-Cotton Tigers invade the Kemper Military Academy to do battle with the Yellow Jackets and Jefferson City Jays make the trek to Hannibal to encounter the Pirates of Hannibal High.

S-C Over Kemper?

You can have your choice between the Bengals and Kemper. Kemper, with only four members from the 1950 squad returning, has a green and untested team. In going to their troubles, they have a new coach who uses a different offensive pattern than last year. The Tigers, with nine returning lettermen and three provisional letter-winners, have a seasoned and well balanced team. They easily dumped the Marshall Owls Friday 27-20. We'll pick the Bengals.

One Change to Be Made

Coach Ralph "Stub" Dow indicated the plan to change only one starting Smith-Cotton position in the game with Kemper. Gene Rathburn, an aggressive 150-pounder will probably replace 180-lb. tackle Jim Phelps, who started against Marshall last Friday.

Smith-Cotton plans to lead-off with the T formation, but in case the going gets rough the team will be ready to experiment with their yet to be used single wing.

Dow named a 27-man traveling squad for the trip to Boonville at Wednesday's practice. Absent from this list are four seniors, who turned in their uniforms and Melvin Jones, promising sophomore, who was forced to quit because of illness. Jones was considered one of the more promising youngsters. He weighed 193 and played guard.

Dow claimed the absence of these boys would give some underclassmen an opportunity to gain valuable experience.

Tigers Work Hard

Tuesday afternoon's practice was the roughest the Bengals have experienced this season. Dow worked his charges on both the single wing and T formations, and on all phases of defense, including blocking and tackling.

Wednesday's practice was mainly to sharpen the Tiger attack with the top varsity men taking it easy and the reserves receiving the rough end of the drill.

Today the Bengals held their weekly dress practice, running through offensive plays and defensive patterns and holding signal drill.

Bengal Weights Up

Dow seemed puzzled but pleased when he went over the S-C weight chart for this week. Less than two weeks ago when the first weigh-in was held, the starting lineup averaged about 162. This week the starting unit will average about 168. Among the boys who have added pounds are Stan Welch, Elmer Burton, Skip Schulz, Don Alcorn, Jim Dent, Jack Shelledy, Joe Walter, Jimmy Schmidt, Phillip Wulff, Jim Schneek, Bob England, Gene Rathburn, Herb Ford, Wilbur Bain, Gray Gardner and Benny Walters.

Jays-Hannibal Rate Even

From this point it looks like the Jeff City-Hannibal races will go either way. The Jays were bested last Friday by a powerful Mexico high school crew, while Hannibal fought Rushville to a 6-6 deadlock. Both squads have about the same caliber of manpower.

Columbia's Kewpies will stay in the non-conference league this week. Columbia will take on Kirksville at the north Missouri city. Kirksville, a powerhouse in Missouri high school grid circles last season, was the only eleven to take the measure of the 1950 Columbians, winning 14-6. The Kewpies, who beat Fulton, 34-0, Friday, are the defending champions of the CMC, while Kirksville holds the title in the North Central Missouri Conference.

Romanik Passes For Bear Victory In Final Period

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 20.—(P)—With five minutes to go, a 79-yard scoring pass from Steve Romanik to Gene Schroeder gave the Chicago Bears a 21-19 victory over the Washington Redskins in a professional exhibition football game here last night.

On the brilliant passing of Harry Gilmer, the Redskins built up a 13 to 0 lead in the first quarter. At that point it appeared that the Washington club would make a rout of the game.

Steve Romanik scored the Bears' first touchdown late in the second quarter. Johnny Lujack converted to bring the Chicago team within six points, 7-13.

The Bears took a one point lead in the third quarter with George Gulyanics scoring from short range and Lujack again converting.

George Thomas, former Oklahoma university ace, whipped over for a touchdown early in the fourth quarter to put Washington ahead 19 to 14. That set the stage for the winning touchdown pass from Romanik to Schroeder.

Yanks Gasping As Indians Keep Climbing

Tribe Downs Sox And Looks to Bums As Next Big Hurdle

By Jack Hand Associated Press Sports Writer

Cleveland's sweep of the Boston series leaves the league-leading New York Yankees gasping for breath in the American league.

Still out front by three percentage points after yesterday's 5-3 victory over Chicago, the Yanks face rough going ahead.

While they play nine of 10 with first division clubs, the Tribe plays only six—five with the bottom half of the league.

Chances are the Yanks and Red Sox will knock off one another in their eight meetings while Cleveland picks up enough ground to get home free. Then they can start worrying about Brooklyn, which opened up a 3 1/2 game lead on idle New York in the National league last night by blanking St. Louis 3-0.

Chicago After Yank

Chicago, in a vengeful mood since that disputed rainy night game at the stadium in July, can knock the Yanks out of first place today while Cleveland rides a train to Detroit.

Saul Rogovin (12-7), a three-time winner against New York, was to meet Johnny Sain (2-1), the National league refugee, in the big game of the day.

Cleveland showed its old booming drive yesterday in wallowing Boston 15-2, a blow that practically doubled the last Red Sox hopes. Trailing by 3 1/2 games with 11 to play, Boston's main job now seems to be making or breaking the Yanks in the series opening at Fenway tomorrow.

Wynn Wins No. 20

Early Wynn became the Tribe's third 20-game winner with a seven-hit job on Boston. While he coached the Indians took full advantage of 11 hits and 13 bases on balls by Maury McDermott and five successors. Ray Boone, Luke Easter and Bobby Avila hit home runs.

With Wynn, (20-12), Mike Garcia (20-12) and Bobby Feller (22-8) in the select circle, Cleveland is in an enviable position. No big league team has three 20-game winners since the Athletics of 1931. They won the pennant.

Dodgers Shut Out Cards

Preacher Roe took charge of pulling Brooklyn out of its tailspin by shutting out the St. Louis Cardinals with five hits. The crafty lefty's record now is a phenomenal 21-2 for the season including seven wins over St. Louis.

Given a two-run edge in the fourth on Mickey Livingston's bases loaded single, Roe had only one tight squeak. One of the Brooks' three doubleplays helped him out of it. Max Lanier was knocked out in the eighth when the Dodgers added their third run.

Brooklyn ends its last western swing today at St. Louis while the Giants finish up at Cincinnati.

Phillies Go To Church

Bubba Church whipped Chicago for the sixth time, 5-1 as the Phillies took advantage of four CUB errors. It was his 15th win, making his lifetime record against Chicago, 10-1.

Murry Dickson's 19th win let Pittsburgh out of last place, 7-3, at the expense of Boston's young Check Nichols. Dick Cole and Gus Bell homered for the Pirates, Earl Torgeson for the Braves.

The hustling Philadelphia A's, struggling to catch fifth-place Detroit, knocked off the Tigers, 8-1, on a seven-run spurt in the fourth inning.

Cass Michaels singled with the bases loaded in the eighth to score two runs for Washington's 4-3 edge over St. Louis, breaking the Senators' four-game losing streak. Bob Porterfield won his seventh since he was acquired from the Yanks.

Seattle Wins Coast League Cup Series

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 20.—(P)—Seattle has the best ball club in the Pacific Coast league this year and demonstrated it convincingly last night by beating Hollywood in the fifth and deciding game of the Governor's Cup playoff series, 9-2.

The 1951 pennant winners exploded for four runs in the seventh inning, knocked knuckle-

Out Our Way

By J. R. Williams

DONE LIKE AN OLD SALT—He's only three years old, but John Henry Foster knows enough to throw a snappy salute when the Navy brass comes by. John Henry's dad is a crewman on the aircraft carrier U.S.S. Gilbert Islands, which just rejoined the fleet in Philadelphia. The Naval officers are Capt. Carl E. Giese, left, commander of the carrier, and Capt. Willard J. Suits, commander of the Philadelphia Atlantic Reserve Fleet.

Japanese Living Deficit
TOKYO —(AP)—Japanese are spending more than they make. At least they were in May, and the sharp increase in cost of utilities, rice, bread and other necessities since then — without widespread boosts in wages — indicate they still are.

Figures on the income and outgo of Japan's 84,100,000 (June 1 estimate) population were compiled by occupation officials in General Ridgway's economic and scientific section.

Income of city workers' families, including the head of the household and all others picking up pin money regularly, averages 15,026 yen a month. That's $41.74 American. Expenditures per family average 15,188 yen per month. That's $42.17 American.

Postcard Cost To Be Hoisted To Two Cents

House Also Votes To Increase Cost On 2nd Class Mail

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—House voted Wednesday to mark up the penny postcard to two cents but left the three-cent letter rate unchanged.

It also voted to increase the mailing costs for newspapers and magazines by 30 per cent, spread over a three-year period.

The increases were in a bill, which the House approved, that would bring about $126,000,000 new revenue to the Postoffice Department, now in the red by an estimated $500,000,000 for this year.

The measure now goes to a Senate-House conference committee because it differs considerably from the postal bill passed by the Senate.

Today's action clears the way for consideration tomorrow of a $251,000,000 bill to grant pay raises of $400 per year to 500,000 postal employees.

House approval of the rates bill was by voice vote.

A technicality blocked a vote on a proposal to eliminate free mailing privileges for congressmen and government agencies. Rep. Curtis (R-Neb.) the sponsor, said it would save $80,000,000 annually.

Here are main points in the House and Senate bills:

FIRST CLASS MAIL.—Both houses approved raising postcards to two cents. The Senate voted a one-cent increase in the cost of mailing an ordinary letter; the House left the three-cent rate. Both bills double the present rate for a drop letter (delivered within the postoffice where mailed) now one cent.

AIR MAIL.—The Senate bill raised airmail to two cents, to eight cents an ounce, and boosted by one cent the four-cent charge for an airmail postcard. There is no airmail increase in the House measure.

SECOND CLASS MAIL.—The House measure increased the cost of mailing newspapers and magazines by 10 per cent a year for the next three years. The Senate voted a total of 30 per cent increase for newspaper and 60 per cent for magazines, over three years.

These increases do not effect publications circulated in the country where they are published.

The House today exempted—by an 89-84 standing vote—religious, educational, temperance and scientific publications designed specifically for classroom or religious use, whether they make a profit or not. The Senate had voted similarly. Previously non-profit publications of such organizations were exempt.

The Post Office Department had requested a 100 per cent increase, over three years, in second class rates. The House postoffice committee had urged a 60 per cent raise. This figure was halved by approval of an amendment sponsored by Rep. Lyle (D-Tex.).

THIRD CLASS MAIL.—Rates for such items as catalogs and seeds would be raised by both houses from 1½ cents for two ounces to 2 cents for the first two ounces and 1½ cents for each additional two ounces.

FOURTH CLASS MAIL (PARCEL POST).—The Senate voted increases aggregating $62,000,000 per year. The House bill made no change in present rates, because the Interstate Commerce Commission recently approved increases which are expected to add $105,000,000 to present charges. These boosts become effective next month.

SPECIAL SERVICE CHARGES.—Increases are in both bills. Special delivery rates under the House bill would jump from 15 cents on small mailings to 23 cents; the Senate boosts them to 20 cents. Both measures raise registry charges from 25 to 30 cents. C.O.D. charges will go from 20 to 30 cents. Each bill would increase by five cents the rates for insuring parcels for $50 or more.

Clayton Gives Break To Overtime Parkers

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 20.—An overtime parking ticket costs just 10 cents in suburban Clayton now—if the motorist gets to city hall within a half hour.

Clayton Police Chief Charles J. Tacke said the new ruling is a courtesy to drivers who had complained they were tagged although overtime by only a few minutes.

Those who don't get to city hall and deposit two nickles in a special parking meter set up there, will have to pay the usual $1 fine.

Court Rules Mos Must Pay School For Back Tuition

The Sedalia Public School district No. 200, a corporation, was awarded $166.54 judgment and court costs in a trial in the Magistrate Court from Henri Mos Wednesday. Mos immediately appealed the case to the Pettis County Circuit Court.

The information filed in the suit by the Sedalia Public School district No. 200 claimed that Mos' two children had attended Sedalia schools from 1949 to 1950 without paying tuition, while they resided outside the city limits.

After hearing the evidence Judge W. W. Blain, of the Magistrate Court, found in favor of the school district.

Mos owns a home at 810 South State Fair Boulevard, but claims that the family resides at an apartment above his business establishment at 302½ West Main.

Chester L. Wolfe represented the plaintiff in the case and Henry C. Salveter and George H. Miller represented Mos.

Dr. Conant's Message of Hope:

A Skeptical Chemist Looks Into Your Future

Harvard President Sees No Gloom in Crystal Ball for 1984

By Dr. James Bryant Conant, President of Harvard University (Distributed by NEA Service)

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Let me turn to my crystal ball and try and glimpse the outlines of the balance of the Twentieth Century. In so doing I wrap the mantle of Robert Boyle around me, for he was the original skeptical chemist, and I shall follow in his footsteps to the extent of questioning the prophecies of some of the modern alchemists—our friends, the atomic physicists.

For I see in my crystal ball—to be sure a plastic one, as befits a chemical age—I see in this instrument of prophecy neither an atomic holocaust nor the golden abundance of an atomic age. On the contrary, I see worried humanity endeavoring by one political device after another to find a way out of the atomic age. And by the end of the century this appears to have been accomplished, but neither through the triumph of totalitarianism nor by the advent of world government. Unless my readings are vitiated by a huge systematic error, the next 50 years prove that human nature is tough and unyielding to a high degree. Neither the forces of good nor evil prevail to the extent that has been prophesied by some writers in the last few years.

The year 1984, for example, does not glare with menace in my crystal ball. Men and women still continue to be unregimented in many portions of the world. Paris, Berlin, London, New York, Moscow still stand physically undamaged by any enemy action since World War II. They still represent focal points for diverse national outlooks, though the alignment has shifted first one way and then another since 1951. The Marx-Lenin dogmas are still honored in vast areas, but so too are the watchwords of the 18th Century French and American Revolutions: Liberty, Equality, Fraternity. But time and local conditions have greatly modified the operational meaning of both the philosophies of Russian dialectical materialism and Christian rationalism.

The fine structure of the future is beyond the resolving power of my crystal ball. Therefore, the new scientific discoveries, the new theories, the various minor revolutions in physics and inorganic chemistry are not discernible. As to those major revolutions in biochemistry, which by 1985 has become the recognized successor to what was once called biology, I need only allude in passing.

What must be described are the slow but steady changes in the production of energy and food. The era of liquid fossil fuels (oil) is by the close of the century coming to an end, and the worry about future coal supplies is increasing. For reasons I will explain in a moment, atomic energy has not proved to be an expedient way of lengthening the period in which man taps the sources of energy stored in the earth's crust.

Solar energy, on the other hand, is already of significance by the time (1976) the American Chemical Society celebrates its 100th anniversary, and by the end of the century is the dominating factor in the production of industrial power. The practical utilization of this inexhaustible source of energy, together with the great changes in the production of food, has already had enormous effects on the economic and hence political relation of nations. With cheap power the economical production of fresh water from sea water became a reality. This was about 1985, and made more than one desert adjacent to a seacoast a garden spot.

"Prospects Are Far More Hopeful..."

The phrase above is one reason for the optimistic glimpse into the future ventured here by Dr. James B. Conant, president of Harvard University and an internationally known scholar and scientist. The accompanying article is condensed from an address by Dr. Conant before the American Chemical Society's Diamond Jubilee meeting.

The use of new techniques has made the world food situation by 1999 something quite different from what it was 50 years before. These alterations coupled with the discoveries about the relation of dietary factors to the birth rate and the rapid rise in the standards of living in nations once overcrowded seem to provide the answer to Malthus. The problem of overpopulation, while not solved, promises to be in hand before 2050.

But how did the industrialized nations of the world avoid de-industrializing each other by atomic bombs? Only by the narrowest of margins; and only because time and again when one side or the other was about to take the plunge during the period of intensive armament that preceded the great settlement, the expert military advisers could not guarantee ultimate success.

Of course, the turning point was in 1950, the first year when collective security became a reality. For when the free world had once made up its mind to meet each type of military threat of the Soviet Union with a defense against that threat and no longer relied on the magic of atomic bombs, from that moment on hopes for an eventual disarmament revived.

By the middle of the 1950's, I see balanced forces again at the disposal of the Atlantic Treaty Nations. It is then clear in Moscow that there can be no easy march to the Channel ports.

To be sure, for a decade or more the series of battles in different parts of the globe and the economic sanctions had time and again nearly precipitated World War III.

Unless my observations are in error, I find the 1960's a time when constructive steps away from war are first being taken. Fifteen or 20 years after the first atomic bomb was fired, a sober appraisal of the debits and credits of the exploitation of atomic fission had led people to decide the game was not worth the candle. Once the illusion of prosperity for all through the splitting of the atom vanished from people's minds, the air began to clear. The dividends from the great discoveries of the 40's were recognized to have been the introduction of powerful new tools of investigation in both pure and applied fields of chemistry. The success of a vast technical underpinning to make atomic weapons showed what could be done in other radical departures. The rapid progress in the utilization of solar energy is thus seen as a consequence of the atomic energy development.

The mood 15 or 20 years from now, as I glimpse it, is conditioned by a set of technological military and political factors quite different from those operating in the year 1951.

Just enough agreement is then possible in the United Nations to proceed with gradual disarmament. Just enough inspection proves to be possible to enable even the most suspicious to trust an international guarantee to the effect that there is no assemblage anywhere of vast amounts of fissionable materials and of guided missiles. The existing stocks of fissionable materials are put beyond the immediate reach of any nation.

The possibility of wholesale atomic raids by a nation which treacherously repudiates the treaty is eliminated, sufficient information at least can be guaranteed to settle men's doubts about that sort of war. (And by the 1960's I see people unconcerned about the existence of a few bombs more or less in another nation's arsenal.)

But most significant of all, people by then are beginning to realize that it is protection against invasion by foreign soldiers that is of prime importance. If frontiers can be held against aggression, then atomic bomb threats to industrialized centers are not only unnecessary but outmoded. The date of the great settlement is not clear in my reading of the future, but sometime between 1960 and 1980, the climate of opinion alters. The rearmament of the free world has done its work. Armies, navies, planes are still on hand but the trend is towards less rather than more military power.

So I see the physicists and engineers at that time relieved of a terrible responsibility and gladly turning to labors more congenial than making fission and fusion bombs or guided missiles. I see the chemists in increasing numbers continuing to crowd into fields once reserved for others, and thus an era of peace and prosperity really begins to dawn.

It is easy to be defeatist about the prospects for peace and freedom and to forecast the future only in terms of a global war. I have ventured to do otherwise and with all sincerity.

To my mind the prospects are far more hopeful than they were two years ago. The peoples of the free world have been awakened from their dreams of an easy peace, they have faced up to the realities of the mid-Twentieth Century.

Before long they will be armed and ready. When that day comes the fear of Communist aggression will cease to haunt Western Europe. When that day comes, one can begin to talk about a real settlement of the international situation. Ideas that must now be regarded as Utopian will once again have vitality and meaning.

Just Be Yourself; Don't Let Other People Run Your Life

Three-year-old Alice was starting off cheerfully to bed when the grown-ups started hurrying her. "Run along, Alice," they chorused. And then sweet-faced, strong-minded little Alice stopped short and made a three-word stand for her own dignity. She said sweetly but firmly: "Don't run ME."

Let that be your life's motto, Alice. Remember it when you get to be a bigger girl and the crowd wants you to do something you know you haven't any business doing. Say "don't run me" to yourself—and make up your own mind.

Remember it when you are grown up and have a husband and family of your own. Don't let any of them run you—your husband, your children, or your house.

Remember it if you are ever tempted to try to live your life by the patterns other people cut. It's your life. Don't let anyone else run it for you.

And then when you are older, remember it still. When your children come home and try to make over your life and make your decisions for you, throw back your head, look them in the eye and say gently: "Don't run ME."

Life's Biggest Battle

Keep that for your motto, Alice, and the world and the people in it who are closest to you will never run you.

And if they don't you will have won life's biggest battle—to be yourself, to stick to your own standards, to choose the kind of life you want, to decide for yourself what is important and what is not.

You're only three now. But if you never forget those words, you will always be Alice—not some misshapen thing the world might make of you. Let those words be your motto and you'll get along. They're wonderful words, spunky words, fighting words: "Don't run ME."

Barber Bemoans Loss Of "Artistic" Haircuts

TORONTO —(P)—Leslie Higgins, Liverpool-born barber, says the Duke of Edinburgh likes his hair "a bit long, but neat."

And it suits him perfectly, says the 45-year-old hair snipper. He should know—he cut the Duke's hair in England for 14 years. Higgins, once barber to the Duke of Kent and the Duke of Gloucester, and to King Carol of Romania and Paul of Yugoslavia, now is working in a Toronto barber shop.

He plans to offer his services to the Duke during the royal tour in October. "It would be nice to get back to the artistic side of hair-cutting," he says. "Canadians just jump into the chair and shout: 'Short, front and back!'"

It has been estimated that properly installed lightning rods will reduce the chances of lightning damage to less than five per cent of what it would be without rods.

K.C. Spirit Attracts Artist

KANSAS CITY—(P)—Norman Rockwell, popular magazine cover artist and illustrator, arrived here recently to start on what he himself termed "his most challenging assignment"—to capture "the Kansas City spirit."

But it's no ghost hunt that's facing the 37-year-old artist. Instead it's the first attempt to portray in oils the courage of this city. It was this courage during the recent flood disaster that caught Rockwell's attention at his Arlington, Va., home and caused him to offer his services to the city.

Armed with camera and sketchbook, the Vermont artist gathered impressions here for a painting to sum up this spirit. Rockwell will complete the painting in his Vermont studio but he declined to estimate how long it would take him. "The impressions came so fast that I haven't had time to assimilate them," he pointed out.

Feel A-Bombs Might Save On Casualties

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK—(AP)—A number of American parents who have lost sons in Korea are giving consideration today to the problem of whether the atom bomb could be used advantageously in that theater.

Some have also wondered whether, if atom bombs had been employed some time ago, their sons might have been spared death gallantly trying to take "Rice Paddy Peak," just one of a thousand Korean hill points.

Current reports say that Americans are still trying to take those same old nameless hills in the same old infantry way. It's the walk-up-under-fire way.

I found one account of this action on page 15 of a leading American newspaper, and it was something of a shock to find it so near to the how-to-lose-hips-and-gain-busts-and-stay-beautiful copy.

The previous 14 pages hadn't mentioned Korea. The story on page 15 that did take up the situation on that forgotten peninsula had to do with a three-division allied attack. That is roughly 50,000 men in combat, more than stormed "Omaha Beach" in Normandy.

And who cared? Only those who tried to take the hills, and the folks who weeks from now will be notified of the casualties.

We talk of peace and build for peace, and yet at the same time warfare is our way. It is a small pause for thought to realize we won the enormous American west from the Indians without even a dream of a three-division attack. Did we then even have a three-division army? Who cares now? The Indians are calm.

Not To Laugh
But, as I reflect, more than a year ago, when the United Nations police action in Korea was regarded as only a precinct call, an alarmist then raised the idea that we might end the whole nonsense by dropping a string of atom bombs.

Well, to those who cried nonsense, I still recall saying, "wait until we have had 50,000 casualties." That got a big laugh at the time. But today we have had more than 80,000 combat casualties in Korea, and that is no figure to laugh at.

I spent six bitter months there and saw some of those men become casualties, from fighting and frostbite. Some of the American deaths and maimings, I cannot but feel came from the failure of the U. N. to use the weapon of decision that was available. I mean the atom bomb.

This week a U. S. senator said it was possible to mass produce atom bombs now at a price that would make a single atom bomb less expensive than a tank.

Atom bombs even a year ago were so plentiful they could have been invested in Korea. Certainly today they are available.

The moral arguments against the employment of them in combat are so popular throughout the world that no military authority has had the courage to defeat them.

Yet, President Truman, who ordered two atom bombs dropped on Japan in the last war, said his decision saved American lives—and Japanese lives. He said he would do it again to gain the same goals.

Naturally, some of the relatives of the 80,000 American casualties in Korea are wondering if a few score test drops of our big atom bomb backlog might save a man going up a far Korean hill.

There is also the possibility that a few volunteered atom bombs might impress some of the more thoughtful members among the Red Chinese volunteers in Korea.

Farm Profit Chances

RALEIGH, N. C. — (AP)—The farmer's opportunity for profits is about 10 per cent more favorable now than a year ago, says Dorris D. Brown, extension farm management specialist at North Carolina State College here.

Brown, who recently finished a mid-year summary of agricultural conditions and prospects, says farm prices are generally up 22 per cent over 1950, while prices paid by farmers are up about 11 per cent.

Most agricultural commodity

A WAC WITH A WAY—SFC.—Jeannette Overman of Scott Air Force Base, Ill., shows a group of Army reservists a neat way to break a reverse stranglehold. Her victim is Sgt. Nicholas Klotz of the St. Louis Police Department. The reservists are mostly St. Louis policemen on a two-week tour of active duty.

prices are expected to follow this upward movement. Assuming continuation of full employment and a rearmament program near present levels, agricultural price relationships are expected to be favorable for full and expanded production for the next five to 10 years, Brown states.

Old Stone Horse

CHATHAM, Mass. — (AP)—You wouldn't know the "Old Stone Horse" Lightship was gone — she slipped that quietly away. They slipped a towline over her bow the other day and towed her away to sleep at a mooring at Cape May, N. J.

Sixty years as a lightship was the "Old Stone Horse's" record. She was dean of all lightships at her retirement. The highest moment of her career was early in World War II when the "Old Stone Horse" headed off a Nazi sub.

It happened when the old boat went adrift after running out of gas in a howling nor'easter. She lay helpless when the sub surfaced nearby. The sub seemingly was headed toward New York harbor waters. The lightship crew began flashing the signal light just as when she was on station. The sub's officers recognized the lightship's characteristic signal, knew her proper position, and apparently concluded they were far off course. The sub turned toward the outer ocean and was never heard from again.

Blind Help Reds

BERLIN—(AP)—In Soviet East Berlin war-blinded men and women are being herded into demonstrations to support the Red drive against western rearmament. Armed with anti-western banners, they parade along the border dividing free Berlin and Communist Berlin.

In a recent demonstration sightless East Berliners hoisted placards reading "War has taken our sight. Remember this. Make your decision for peace. Vote yes."

Those referred to the Communist "Peace Plebiscite" in which Germans on both sides of the Iron Curtain are being asked to vote on the trick question: "Are you against German remilitarization and for a peace treaty?"

"By your 'yes' you can prevent war," read one placard carried by a blind demonstrator.

Fish Story Headlines

BELGRADE—(AP)—When Publisher Dragan Drobnyak of the trade union publishing house "Rad" hooked onto a 125 pound fish on a recent Danube fishing trip, he was worried about who would believe his story if the fish got away.

His worries disappeared as time went on, however. He had to play the fish on his line for so long that by the time he finally was able to reel it in, near dusk, his antics on the river had attracted wide attention. The story of his catch appeared, not in "Rad" but in two Belgrade opposition papers.

FALSE TEETH

That Loosen

Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline non-acid powder, on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug store.
